CLUB VISION

Our aim is to be a fun, fair and friendly club where members can improve their skills, get fit, have fun and be successful in their paddling endeavours.

We envisage a club where members strive to achieve unity and commitment to the well-being of our fellow paddlers with fair play, friendship and a competitive sporting spirit.

The Club's Constitution, Code of Conduct and Member Protection Policy can be viewed at "The Cage" or on the Club's Website www.arafuradragons.com.au

MEMBERSHIP FEES as at 22 November 2014.

Note: the preferred payment method is by Direct Deposit (EFT), however cash or a cheque made payable to Arafura Dragons Paddlers Club will be accepted. ADPC also accepts the NTG School's Sports Voucher

Currently ADPC runs 3 training sessions per week. Registered paddlers may participate in all sessions. Based on a Senior Membership, this equates to:

12 months = $1.60 per session, 6 months = $1.80 per session, 3 months = $2.30 per session

All Club Committee Members/Coaches are volunteers. Your membership fees contribute towards: insurance (boat, public liability and professional indemnity), rental of "The Cage", and maintenance of boats and equipment.

Membership fees also include weights session three times a week. Our Head Coach who is a qualified Strength and Conditioning coach can develop a personalized program tailored to suit you.
